Headteacher's Newsletter

Dear Parents/Carers,

Last week our pastoral team and school leaders received training on vaping in response to national concerns regarding an increase in the number of children who have reportedly experimented with vapes.

This was a timely training session as Jeremy Hunt has just announced a new tax on vapes to crack down on this type of smoking in the Spring Budget. The chancellor has introduced this levy on smoking alternatives in a bid to make them unaffordable for children and he said the move would take effect from October 2026. It comes after the government in November last year made plans for a “smoke-free” generation by banning tobacco products for children turning 14 or younger.

In order to support our parents/carers in ‘upskilling’ in this area, bearing in mind that approximately 20.5% of teenagers had reported trying a vape in 2023, we have linked up with ‘Wize Up’, a confidential service for children aged 10-18 within Havering. They provide advice and awareness on the different types of drugs and the effects they can have on the body.

‘Wize Up’ visits schools across Havering to share important information to parents and carers about the effects of drugs, vaping and alcohol.

Hall Mead School will be hosting a parent / carer presentation led by Wize Up on Tuesday 19th March, 4-5pm.

Information provided will include details around vaping, its effects on the adolescent body and issues with substance misuse.

Please can you complete the form below if you would like to attend by Thursday 14th March 2024.

<https://forms.office.com/e/Dv1VqaW6tm>

In addition to this workshop, if you have concerns about your child or someone else, you can refer to this service for support via: Wize Up - Havering - Referrals | Change Grow Live

Thanks again.

Light Exposure

Mrs Harradine listened to a podcast by Dr Rangan Chatterjee and Professor Russell Foster last week about the importance of light exposure, especially with regards to teenage mental health. She shared the following with us:

• Greater night time light exposure (e.g. from a mobile phone) presents an increased risk of the following

- ⇒ Major depressive disorder
- ⇒ Generalised anxiety disorder
- ⇒ PTSD
- ⇒ Bipolar
- ⇒ Psychosis
- ⇒ Self-harm behaviours

Whilst greater daytime light exposure reduces the risk of these conditions!

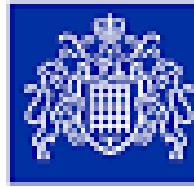

Avoiding light at night and seeking out light during the day is a simple and effective non medical means of improving mental health and young people are far more sensitive to the effects of light exposure.

Dr Chatterjee has worked with a severely suicidal adolescent who vastly improved his mood by reducing their light exposure in the evening by simply having no devices for two hours before bed.

Year 8 / 9 Girls' Football

Mr Hart, Teacher of English

Mr Hart took his Years 8 and 9 girl footballers to next tournament at Bower Park on Monday.

Despite two wins and a draw, they were incredibly unfortunate to go out on goal difference.

They played incredibly well throughout and he was really impressed with all the girls. Well done to everyone who participated!

Year 7 Rugby

Mr Newall, Teacher of Religious Studies

Huge congratulations to our Year 7 Rugby Team who put in a massive team performance in both defence and attack to win 8-3 (40-15) at Royal Liberty on Monday.

Spanish Department

On Tuesday 5th March, Señora López and Señor Jiménez took Nathan A, Jasmine K and Gersa U to Rokeby School in London to take part in the Foreign Language Bee London Regional Final.

To get to this final, pupils had to learn how to say and spell 300 words! It was a very tough competition and whilst all three Year 7s did extremely well, unfortunately they did not get through to the National Final.

We are very proud of all three pupils; they were three of the last 62 out of the 2978 students who started the competition back in September.

We look forward to perhaps seeing them in the London Regional Final of the Translation Bee next year!

Kingston University Visit

Mrs Witchalls, Trust Careers Adviser / Mr Leslie, Assistant Headteacher

25 Year 9 students had a fantastic day at Kingston University for a STEM university and future skills event.

The students were given a tour around the university campus, explored different degrees available from a range of different universities and took part in some subject taster sessions.

The sessions delivered were engaging and included performing various experiments and using different equipment.

A particular highlight was when the students met 'HAL' the simulated medical trauma patient.

Students were able to observe different symptoms such as convulsions, allergic reaction (including a swollen tongue!), heart palpitations and heart murmurs.

Thank you to Mrs Witchalls and Mr Leslie for taking the students on this special trip!
